

Memphis Recovery Centers

Looking for a rewarding career by helping young men and women succeed?

Memphis Recovery Centers (MRC) provides professional counseling for youth and adults in a caring and confidential atmosphere. MRC operates an in-house school for youth in alcohol and drug treatment. The school, known as the Transitions Learning Center (TLC), provides a traditional classroom setting with a low patient-staff ratio that enables our youth to excel in an academic environment. MRC communicates directly with outside public and private schools and other primary treatment providers to offer an added resource for balancing treatment planning and academics.

We are currently seeking qualified applicants for the position of:

TEACHER

This position involves educating at-risk youth in a controlled environment with small student-teacher ratios. Staff will gain CPR and CPI (Crisis Prevention) training.

Qualified applicants must: have a Bachelor's degree and a valid certified teaching license, valid driver's license, and pass a criminal background check. Relevant experience is preferred, but not required

BENEFITS

Medical Insurance Options, Group Dental, Life/LTD Insurance, Company Matched 401k, Training, Paid Time Off, and Sick Leave.
